

United States thereon, to assure the public a full and unimpeded view thereof, and to provide for the maintenance of the site (other than those portions thereof which are occupied by public buildings and monuments and the Antietam National Cemetery) in, or its restoration to, substantially the condition in which it was at the time of the battle of Antietam. Not more than 600 acres of land, however, shall be acquired in fee by purchase or condemnation, but neither this limitation nor any other provision of law shall preclude such acquisition of the fee title to other lands and its immediate reconveyance to the former owner with such covenants, restrictions, or conditions as will accomplish the purposes of this Act: Provided, That the cost to the Government of any such transaction shall not exceed the reasonable value of the covenants, restrictions, or conditions thereby imposed on the property. Any acquisition authorized by this Act may be made without regard to the limitation set forth in the proviso contained in the Act of May 14, 1940 (54 Stat. 212). The Secretary shall report to the Congress at least once each year on any acquisition made or agreement entered into under this Act.

Approved April 22, 1960.

[H. R. 3676]

To direct the Secretary of the Interior to convey certain lands to the city of Tillamook, Oregon.

Tillamook, Oreg.
Land conveyance.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior is directed to convey all the right, title, and interest of the United States in and to lot 4, section 25, township 1 south, range 10 west, Willamette meridian, Oregon, embracing some 1.98 acres, to the city of Tillamook, Oregon, upon the payment of the fair market value of the land conveyed: Provided, That in the disposition, by sale, lease, or otherwise, or any tract of the land conveyed by this Act which is occupied or developed for municipal, business, residential, or other beneficial purposes on the date of approval of this Act, the city of Tillamook shall afford a preference right to the occupant thereof on the date of approval of this Act, or his successor in interest. Where the tract is occupied by a person other than the owner of the improvements thereon, the owner of the improvements shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be considered the occupant of the tract.

SEC. 2. The execution of the conveyance directed by section 1 of this Act shall not relieve any occupants of those lands of any liability, existing on the date of that conveyance, to the United States for unauthorized use of the conveyed lands.

Approved April 22, 1960.
