AN ACT

July 7, 1960
[H. R. 8212]

To amend title 10, United States Code, with respect to the procedure for ordering certain members of the reserve components to active duty and the requirements for physical examination of members of the reserve components, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That title 10, United States Code, is amended as follows:

(1) Section 1004(a) is amended to read as follows:

“(a) Each member of the Ready Reserve who is not on active duty shall—

“(1) be examined as to his physical fitness every four years, or more often as the Secretary concerned considers necessary; and

“(2) execute and submit annually a certificate of physical condition.”

Each Reserve in an active status, or on an inactive status list, who is not on active duty shall execute and submit annually a certificate of physical condition.”

(2) Chapter 307 is amended as follows:

(A) By adding the following new section at the end thereof:

“§ 3080. Army National Guard of the United States: Authority of officers with respect to Federal status

“Under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Army, officers of the Army National Guard of the United States who are not on active duty may—

“(1) order members of the Army National Guard of the United States or, with the approval of the Secretary of the Air Force, members of the Air National Guard of the United States, to active duty for training under section 672(d) of this title;

“(2) enlist, reenlist, or extend the enlistments of persons as Reserves of the Army or Reserves of the Air Force for service in the Army National Guard of the United States or the Air National Guard of the United States, as the case may be; and

“(3) with respect to their Federal status, promote or discharge persons enlisted or reenlisted as Reserves of the Army or Reserves of the Air Force for that service.”

(B) By adding the following new item at the end of the analysis:

“3080. Army National Guard of the United States: authority of officers with respect to Federal status.”

AN ACT

July 7, 1960
[H. R. 8241]

To amend certain provisions of the Civil Service Retirement Act relating to the reemployment of former Members of Congress.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) subsection (1) of section 1 of the Civil Service Retirement Act is amended by striking out the words “in the case of an employee separated or transferred to a position not within the purview of this Act before he has completed five years of civilian service or a Member separated before he has completed five years of Member service” and inserting in lieu thereof “in the case of an employee or Member separated or transferred to a position not within the purview of this Act before he has completed five years of civilian service”.

Civil Service
Retirement Act, amendments.
70 Stat. 744.
5 USC 2251.

5 USC 2256(f).

(b) Subsection (f) of section 6 of such Act is amended by striking out the words “Member service” where they first appear in such subsection and inserting in lieu thereof the words “civilian service”.

5 USC 2258(b).

(c) Subsection (b) of section 8 of such Act is amended by striking out the words “Member service” in the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the words “civilian service”.

5 USC 2259(b).

(d) (1) So much of subsection (b) of section 9 of such Act as precedes the first proviso is amended to read as follows:

“(b) The annuity of a congressional employee retiring under this Act shall be computed as provided in subsection (a), except that with respect to so much of his service as a congressional employee and his military service as does not exceed a total of fifteen years, and with respect to any Member service, the annuity shall be computed by multiplying 2½ per centum of the average salary by the years of such service.”

(2) Clause (1) of the second sentence of such subsection is amended by inserting after the words “congressional employee” the words “or Member, or any combination of such service”.

(e) The first sentence of section 9(c) is amended to read as follows:

“(c) The annuity of a Member, or of a former Member with title to Member annuity, retiring under this Act shall be computed as provided in subsection (a), except that if he has had at least five years’ service as a Member or a congressional employee, or any combination of such service the annuity shall be computed, with respect to (1) his service as a Member and so much of his military service as is creditable for the purposes of this clause, and (2) so much of his congressional employee service as does not exceed fifteen years, by multiplying 2½ per centum of the average salary by the years of such service.”

5 USC 2263.

(f) Section 13(c) of the Civil Service Retirement Act is amended to read as follows:

“(c) If a Member heretofore or hereafter retired under this Act hereafter becomes employed in an appointive or elective position, annuity payments shall be discontinued during such employment and resumed in the same amount upon termination of such employment, except that—
