50 USC app.
2021.

SEC. 2. Section 1(b) of the Export Control Act of 1949 is amended to read as follows:

"(b) The unrestricted export of materials without regard to their potential military and economic significance may adversely affect the national security of the United States."

SEC. 3. (a) Section 2 of the Export Control Act of 1949 is amended by inserting "of the United States" immediately before the period at the end thereof.

50 USC app.
2023.

(b) Section 2 of such Act is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"The Congress further declares that it is the policy of the United States to formulate, reformulate, and apply such controls to the maximum extent possible in cooperation with all nations with which the United States has defense treaty commitments, and to formulate a unified commercial and trading policy to be observed by the non-Communist-dominated nations or areas in their dealings with the Communist-dominated nations."

(c) Section 2 of such Act is further amended by adding at the end thereof (after the paragraph added by subsection (b) of this section) the following new paragraph:

"The Congress further declares that it is the policy of the United States to use its economic resources and advantages in trade with Communist-dominated nations to further the national security and foreign policy objectives of the United States."

SEC. 4. Section 3(a) of the Export Control Act of 1949 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "Such rules and regulations shall provide for denial of any request or application for authority to export articles, materials, or supplies, including technical data, from the United States, its territories and possessions, to any nation or combination of nations threatening the national security of the United States, if the President shall determine that such export makes a significant contribution to the military or economic potential of such nation or nations which would prove detrimental to the national security and welfare of the United States."

50 USC app.
2023.

SEC. 5. Section 5 of the Export Control Act of 1949 is amended to read as follows:

“VIOLATIONS

50 USC app.
