

Ute Mountain Reservation of such bonus sums, rentals, and royalties, or other moneys paid or received on account of the leasing of any portion of such lands and now held in a joint account in the Treasury of the United States pursuant to the agreement dated May 9, 1957, between the two tribes, approved by the Area Director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. In furtherance of the accomplishment of this intent and the attainment of this objective, the parties are hereby authorized to enter into a settlement agreement, in which provision may be made for a recognition in perpetuity of their relative rights to use and to enjoy the surface and the subsurface of the lands identified in section 2 of this Act, including the division of any and all of such bonus sums, rentals, and royalties, or other moneys paid or received on account of the leasing of any portion of said lands for any purpose or purposes. Such settlement agreement may be embodied in and be made a part of any decree of the court, which thereupon shall be final and conclusive with respect to the rights and interests of all parties.

SEC. 5. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to be a congressional determination of the merits of the conflicting tribal, individual Indian, or other claims with respect to the lands that are the subject of this Act.

Approved February 14, 1968.

Public Law 90-257

AN ACT

To amend the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 and the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act to provide for increase in benefits, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That—

TITLE I—AMENDMENTS TO THE RAILROAD RETIREMENT ACT

SEC. 101. The eighth sentence of section 1 (h) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 is amended by inserting "before 1968" after "calendar month" and by adding after such eighth sentence the following new sentence: "In making such a determination there shall be attributable as compensation paid to him for each calendar month after 1967 in which he is in military service so creditable the amount of $260."

SEC. 102. The second paragraph of section 2(d) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 is amended by striking out "$1,200" wherever this figure appears and inserting in lieu thereof "$2,400"; by striking out "$100" wherever such figure appears and inserting in lieu thereof "$200"; and by striking out "$50" and inserting in lieu thereof "$100".

SEC. 103. (a) Section 2(e) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 is amended by striking out "reduction" and inserting in lieu thereof

42 USC 401.

SEC. 104. (a) Section 3(a) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 is amended by striking out all that appears therein and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Computation of annuities.

80 Stat. 1075.

45 USC 228c.

“SEC. 3. (a)(1) The annuity of an individual shall be computed by multiplying his ‘years of service’ by the following percentages of his ‘monthly compensation’: 3.58 per centum of the first $50; 2.69 per centum of the next $100; and 1.79 per centum of the remainder up to a total of (i) $450, or (ii) an amount equal to one-twelfth of the current maximum and taxable ‘wages’ as defined in section 3121 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, whichever is greater.

68A Stat. 417.

26 USC 3121.

“(2) The annuity of the individual (as computed under paragraph (1) of this subsection, or under that part of subsection (e) of this section preceding the first proviso) shall be increased in an amount determined from his monthly compensation by use of the following table:

“Monthly compensation :	Increase
Up to $100	$9. 13
$101 to $150	11. 22
$151 to $200	12. 87
$201 to $250	14. 63
$251 to $300	16. 17
$301 to $350	17. 82
$351 to $400	19. 47
$401 to $450	20. 90
$451 to $500	22. 55
$501 to $550	24. 09
$551 to $600	27. 83
$601 and over	31. 46

The amount of the increase shall be the amount on the same line as that in which the range of monthly compensation includes his monthly compensation: Provided, however, That, for months with respect to which the individual is entitled to a supplemental annuity under subsection (j), the increase provided in this paragraph shall be reduced by 6.55 per centum of the amount determined under paragraph (1), or under that part of subsection (e) of this section which precedes the first proviso, which is based on the first $450 of the monthly compensation or an amount equal to the amount of the supplemental annuity payable to him, whichever is less: Provided further, That for months with respect to which the individual is entitled to a benefit under title II of the Social Security Act, the increase shall be reduced by (i) 17.3 per centum of such social security benefit if the increase has not been reduced pursuant to the preceding proviso or (ii) 11.5 per centum of such social security benefit if the increase has been reduced pursuant to the preceding proviso (disregarding for the purpose of this and the following proviso any increase in such benefit based on recomputations other than for the correction of errors after the first adjustment and any increases derived from legislation enacted after the Social Security Amendments of 1967): And provided further, That the amount computed under this subsection for any month shall not be less than the amount computed in accordance with paragraph (1), or under that part of subsection (e) of this section which precedes the first proviso, plus (i) $10 minus any reduction made pursuant to the first proviso of this paragraph or (ii) if the individual is entitled to a benefit under title II of the Social Security Act and no reduction is made pursuant to the first proviso of this paragraph, $10 minus 5.8 per centum of the lesser of the amount of such social security benefit, or of the amount computed in accordance with paragraph (1), or under that part of subsection (e) of this section which precedes the first proviso."

80 Stat. 1073.

(b) The first paragraph of section 3(e) of such Act is amended by striking out the language before the first proviso beginning with "except that" and continuing through "amended in 1966"; by striking out the language beginning with "(deeming" and continuing through "the Social Security Act)"; and by adding at the end thereof the following three new paragraphs:

"For the purposes of the first proviso in the first paragraph of this subsection, (i) completely and partially insured individuals shall be deemed to be fully and currently insured, respectively; (ii) individuals entitled to insurance annuities under subsections (a)(1) and (d) of section 5 of this Act shall be deemed to have attained age 62 (the provisions of this clause shall not apply to individuals who, though entitled to insurance annuities under section 5(a)(1) of this Act, were entitled to an annuity under section 5(a)(2) of this Act for the month before the month in which they attained age 60); (iii) individuals entitled to insurance annuities under section 5(a)(2) of this Act shall be deemed to be entitled to insurance benefits under section 202(e) or (f) of the Social Security Act on the basis of disability; (iv) individuals entitled to insurance annuities under section 5(c) of this Act on the basis of disability shall be deemed to be entitled to insurance benefits under section 202(d) of the Social Security Act on the basis of disability; and (v) women entitled to spouses' annuities pursuant to elections made under section 2(h) of this Act shall be deemed to be entitled to wives' insurance benefits determined under section 202(q) of the Social Security Act; and, for the purposes of this subsection, any possible deductions under subsections (g) and (h) (2) of section 203 of the Social Security Act shall be disregarded.

42 USC 403.

"Notwithstanding the provisions of section 202(q) of the Social Security Act, the amount determined under the proviso in the first paragraph of this subsection for a widow or widower who is or has been entitled to an annuity under section 5(a) (2) of this Act, shall be equal to 90.75 per centum of the primary insurance amount (reduced in accordance with section 203(a) of the Social Security Act) of the employee as determined under this subsection, and the amount so determined shall be reduced by three-tenths of 1 per centum for each month the annuity would be subject to a reduction under section 5(a) (2) of this Act (adjusted upon attainment of age 60 in the same manner as an annuity under section 5(a) (1) of this Act which, before attainment of age 60, had been payable under section 5(a) (2) of this Act); and the amount so determined shall be reduced by the amount of any benefit under title II of the Social Security Act to which she or he is, or on application would be, entitled.

"In cases where an annuity under this Act is not payable under the first proviso in the first paragraph of this subsection on the date of enactment of the Social Security Amendments of 1967, the primary insurance amount used in determining the applicability of such proviso shall, except in cases where the employee died before 1939, be derived after deeming the individual on whose service and compensation the annuity is based (i) to have become entitled to social security benefits, or (ii) to have died without being entitled to such benefits, after the date of the enactment of the Social Security Amendments of 1967. For this purpose, the provision of section 215(b) (3) of the Social Security Act that the employee must have reached age 65 (62 in the case of a woman) after 1960 shall be disregarded and there shall be substituted for the nine-year period prescribed in section 215(d) (1) (B) (i) of the Social Security Act, the number of years elapsing after 1936 and up to the year of death if the employee died before 1946."

ability within the meaning of this paragraph if her or his permanent physical or mental condition is such that she or he is unable to engage in any regular employment. The provisions of section 2(a) of this Act as to the proof of disability shall apply with regard to determinations with respect to disability under this paragraph. The annuity of a widow or widower under this paragraph shall cease upon the last day of the second month following the month in which she or he ceases to be under a disability unless such annuity is otherwise terminated on an earlier date. The period referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph is the period beginning with the latest of (i) the month of the employee's death, (ii) the last month for which she was entitled to an annuity under subsection (b) as the widow of such employee, or (iii) the month in which her or his previous entitlement to an annuity as the widow or widower of such employee terminated because her or his disability had ceased and ending with the month before the month in which she or he attains age sixty, or, if earlier with the close of the eighty-fourth month following the month with which such period began."

(b) Section 5(h) of such Act is amended by striking out all that follows "be increased to $18.14" and inserting in lieu thereof a period.

(c) Section 5(i)(1)(ii) of such Act is amended by inserting "deeming such an individual who is entitled to an annuity under subsection (a)(1) of this section to have attained age sixty-two unless such individual will have been entitled to an annuity under subsection (a)(2) of this section for the month before the month in which he attained age sixty", after "an activity within the United States".

(d) Section 5(j) of such Act is amended by striking out all after the colon and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Provided, however, That the annuity of a child, qualified under subsection (1)(1)(ii)(C) of this section, shall cease upon the last day of the second month following the month in which he ceases to be unable to engage in any regular employment by reason of a permanent physical or mental condition unless in such second month he qualifies for an annuity under one of the other provisions of this Act and unless his annuity is otherwise terminated on an earlier date."

(e) Section 5(1)(1) of such Act is amended by changing the period at the end of subdivision (i) thereof to a semicolon; by striking out "which began" from subdivision (ii)(C) and inserting in lieu thereof "which disability began"; and by striking out "216(h)(1) of the Social Security Act, as in effect prior to 1957, shall be applied" where such language first appears and inserting in lieu thereof "216(h) of the Social Security Act shall be applied deeming, for this purpose, individuals entitled to an annuity under section 2(e) or (h) to be entitled to benefits under subsection (b) or (c) of section 202 of the Social Security Act and individuals entitled to an annuity under subsection (a) or (b) of this section to be entitled to a benefit under subsection (e), (f), or (g) of section 202 of the Social Security Act".

(f) Section 5(1)(9) of such Act is amended by inserting "or January 1, 1951, whichever is later" before "eliminating any excess over $300"; by striking out "for any calendar year before 1955 is less than $3,600" and inserting in lieu thereof "in the period before 1951 is less than $50,400, or for any calendar year after 1950 and before 1955 is less than $3,600"; by inserting "period or such" before "calendar year 'wages' as defined in paragraph (6) hereof"; by striking out "for such year and $3,600 for years before 1955" and inserting in lieu thereof "for such period and $50,400, and between the compensation for such year and $3,600 for years after 1950 and before 1955"; by striking out "closing date: Provided, That for the period prior to and including" and inserting in lieu thereof "closing date or January 1, 1951, which-

An employee's 'closing date' shall mean (A)".

(g) Subdivision (i) of section 5(1)(10) of such Act is amended by striking out beginning with "$450; plus (C)" down to and including "multiplied by" and inserting in lieu thereof "(i) $450, or (ii) an amount equal to one-twelfth of the current maximum annual taxable 'wages' as defined in section 3121 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, whichever is greater, plus (C) 1 per centum of the sum of (A) plus (B) multiplied by"; and by striking out "after 1936 in each of which the compensation, wages, or both, paid to him will have been equal to $200 or more" and inserting in lieu thereof "after 1950 in each of which the compensation, wages, or both, paid to him will have been equal to $200 or more plus, for the years after 1936 and before 1951, a number of years determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Board".

(h) Section 5(m) of such Act is amended by striking out all that appears therein and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"(m) The amount of an individual's annuity calculated under the other provisions of this section (except an annuity in the amount determined under the proviso in subsection (a) or (b)) shall (before any reduction on account of age) be increased in the amount of 82.5 per centum in the case of a widow, widower, or parent and 75 per centum in the case of a child of the increase shown in the table in section 3(a)(2) on the same line on which the range of monthly compensation includes an amount equal to the average monthly wage determined for the purposes of section 3(e) (except that for cases involving earnings before 1951 and for cases on the Board's rolls on the enactment date of the 1967 amendments to the Railroad Retirement Act, an amount equal to the highest average monthly wage that can be found on the same line of the table in section 215(a) of the Social Security Act as is the primary insurance amount recorded in the records of the Railroad Retirement Board shall be used, and if such an average monthly wage cannot be determined, the employee's monthly compensation on which his annuity was computed shall be used; and in the case of a pensioner, his monthly compensation shall be deemed to be the earnings which are used to compute his basic amount): Provided, however, That the increase shall (before any reduction on account of age) be reduced by 17.3 per centum of any benefit under title II of the Social Security Act to which the individual is entitled (disregarding for the purpose of this and the following proviso any increase in such benefit based on recomputations other than for the correction of errors after the first adjustment and any increases derived from legislation enacted after the Social Security Amendments of 1967): And provided further, That the amount computed under this subsection shall (before any reduction on account of age) not be less than $5, or, in the case of an individual entitled to benefits under title II of the Social Security Act, such amount shall not be less than $5 minus 5.8 per centum of the lesser of the social security benefit to which such individual is entitled or the benefit computed under the other provisions of this section."

SEC. 106. Section 10(a) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 is amended by striking therefrom the last sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following new sentence: "Upon the expiration of his term of office a member shall continue to serve until his successor is appointed and shall have qualified."

SEC. 108. (a) Except as otherwise provided, the amendments made by this title, other than section 102, subsections (f) and (g) of section 105, and section 106, shall be effective with respect to annuities accruing for months beginning with the month with respect to which the increase in benefits under title II of the Social Security Act provided for by the Social Security Amendments of 1967 is effective, and with respect to pensions due in calendar months next following the month with respect to which the increase in benefits under title II of the Social Security Act provided for by the Social Security Amendments of 1967 is effective. The amendments made by section 102 shall be effective with respect to annuities accruing for months in calendar years after 1967. The amendments made by section 105 (f) and (g) shall be effective with respect to benefits payable on deaths occurring on or after the date of enactment of this Act. The amendments made by section 106 shall be effective on the enactment date of this Act.

(b) In cases where an annuity is payable in the month before the month with respect to which increases in benefits under title II of the Social Security Act provided for by the Social Security Amendments of 1967 become effective in an amount determined under the Railroad Retirement Act, other than under the first proviso of section 3(e) of such Act, the provisions of this Act shall be presumed, in the absence of a claim to the contrary, to provide a higher amount of increase in the annuity than the provisions of the Social Security Amendments of 1967 would provide as an increase in the amount determined under the first proviso of section 3(e) of the Railroad Retirement Act.

TITLE II—AMENDMENTS TO THE RAILROAD UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACT

SEC. 201. (a)(1) Section 1(k) of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act is amended by striking out “or which is included in a maternity period” and inserting in lieu thereof “, or, with respect to a female employee, a calendar day on which, because of pregnancy, miscarriage, or the birth of a child, (i) she is unable to work or (ii) working would be injurious to her health”.

54 Stat. 1094;
60 Stat. 736.
45 USC 351.

(2) The said section 1(k) is further amended by striking out from the first proviso “$750” and inserting in lieu thereof “$1,000”.

80 Stat. 1087.

(b) Section 1(1) of such Act is amended by redesignating subsections “(1)” and “(1) (1)” as “(1) (1)” and “(1) (2)”, respectively; by striking out from subsection (1) (2), as redesignated, “and the term ‘statement of maternity sickness’ means a statement with respect to a maternity period of a female employee, in each case”; and by striking out the present subsection (1) (2).

60 Stat. 736.

SEC. 202. (a) (1) The first paragraph of section 2(a) of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act is amended by striking out (i) “(other than a day of sickness in a maternity period)”; and (ii) “, and (iii) for each day of sickness in a maternity period”.

45 USC 352.

(2) The said section 2(a) is further amended by striking out the third paragraph thereof.

(3) The said section 2(a) is further amended by striking out the first line from the table thereof; by striking out “5.50”, “6.00”, “6.50”, “7.00”, “7.50”, “8.00”, “8.50”, “9.00”, “9.50” and “10.20” and inserting in lieu thereof “8.00”, “8.50”, “9.00”, “9.50”, “10.00”, “10.50”, “11.00”, “11.50”, “12.00” and “12.70”, respectively; and by striking from the proviso “$10.20” and inserting in lieu thereof “$12.70”.

(b) (1) Section 2(c) of such Act is amended by striking out “, other than days of sickness in a maternity period,” wherever it appears; by inserting “and” after “base year;” where it first appears, and by striking out “;” and the total amount of benefits which may be paid to an employee for days of sickness in a maternity period shall in no case exceed the employee’s compensation in the base year on the basis of which the employee was determined to be qualified for benefits in such maternity period”.

(2) The said section 2(c) is further amended (i) by striking out “leave work without good cause or voluntarily retire” from the second proviso and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “retire and (in a case involving exhaustion of rights to benefits for days of unemployment) did not voluntarily leave work without good cause”; (ii) by inserting after the words “normal benefits for days of unemployment”, the first time they appear in the second proviso, the following: “or days of sickness"; (iii) by inserting after "for, unemployment" in the second proviso the following: "or sickness (depending on the type of benefit rights exhausted)"; (iv) by inserting after "compensable days of unemployment" in the second proviso the following: "or days of sickness, as the case may be,"; (v) by inserting after "first day of unemployment" in the schedule in the second proviso the following: "or sickness, as the case may be,"; (vi) by inserting after the words "days of unemployment" in the schedule in the second proviso the following: "or days of sickness"; (vii) by striking out "leave work without good cause or voluntarily retire" from the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "retire and (in a case involving unemployment) did not voluntarily leave work without good cause"; (viii) by inserting after "unemployment," in the second sentence, the following: "or fourteen or more consecutive days of sickness,"; (ix) by inserting after the words "such unemployment", wherever they appear in the last sentence, the following: "or sickness"; and (x) by adding the following two sentences at the end of such section: "Notwithstanding the other provisions of this subsection, an extended benefit period for sickness benefits shall terminate on the day next preceding the date on which the employee attains age 65, except that it may continue for the purpose of the payment of unemployment benefits; and, in the case of a succeeding benefit year beginning in accordance with the next preceding sentence by reason of sickness, such sentence shall not operate to permit the payment of benefits in the period provided for in such sentence for any day of sickness beginning with the day on which age 65 is attained and continuing through the day preceding the first day of the next succeeding general benefit year. For purposes of this subsection and section 10(h), the Board may rely on evidence of age available in its records and files at the time determinations of age are made."

SEC. 203. Section 3 of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act is amended by striking out "$750" and inserting in lieu thereof "$1,000".

SEC. 204. (a) Section 4(a-1) of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(iii) if he is paid a separation allowance, any of the days in the period beginning with the day following his separation from service and continuing for that number of consecutive fourteen-day periods which is equal, or most nearly equal, to the amount of the separation allowance divided (i) by ten times his last daily rate of compensation prior to his separation if he normally works five days a week, (ii) by twelve times such rate if he normally works six days a week, and (iii) by fourteen times such rate if he normally works seven days a week;"

(b) Section 4(a-2) (i) of such Act is amended by striking out from paragraph (A) thereof "$750" and inserting in lieu thereof "$1,000".

ment Act of 1937 with respect to some or all of the days for which such benefits were paid, had been paid such annuity with respect to all days of sickness for which he was paid benefits which were also days with respect to which such annuity could have accrued. In determining such amount, the Board shall presume that every such employee was, in respect to his permanent physical or mental condition, qualified for such an annuity from the date of onset of the last spell of illness for which he was paid such benefits, if (a) he died without applying for such an annuity and before fully exhausting all rights to such benefits; or (b) he died without applying for such an annuity but within a year after the last day of sickness for which he had been paid such benefits, and had not meanwhile engaged in substantial gainful employment; or (c) he applied for such an annuity within one year after the last day of sickness for which he was paid such benefits and had not engaged in substantial gainful employment after that day and before the day on which he filed an application for such an annuity. The Board shall also have authority to make reasonable approximations deemed necessary in computing annuities for this purpose. The Board shall determine such amount no later than June 15 following the close of the fiscal year, and within ten days after such determination shall certify such amount to the Secretary of the Treasury for transfer from the Railroad Retirement Account to the railroad unemployment insurance account, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall make such transfer. The amount so certified shall include interest (at a rate determined, as of the close of the fiscal year, in accordance with subsection (d) of this section) payable from the close of such fiscal year to the date of certification."

[H. R. 13094]

Commodity Exchange Act, amendment.
49 Stat. 1491.
Definitions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 2(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act (42 Stat. 998), as amended (7 U.S.C. 2), is amended as follows:

(a) By adding a comma after the word "soybeans" in the third sentence of the section and deleting the phrase "and soybean meal" in such sentence and substituting therefor the phrase "soybean meal, livestock, and livestock products";

(b) By changing the eleventh sentence defining "floor broker" to read as follows: "The words 'floor broker' shall mean any person who, in or surrounding any 'pit', 'ring', 'post', or other place provided by a contract market for the meeting of persons similarly engaged, shall purchase or sell for any other person any commodity for future delivery on or subject to the rules of any contract market."; and

(c) By substituting a comma for the period at the end of the last sentence of the section and adding thereafter the following: "or an official or employee of each of the executive departments concerned, designated by the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Attorney General, respectively; and the Secretary of Agriculture or his designee shall serve as Chairman."

Trading limits.

SEC. 2. Section 4a(1) of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (7 U.S.C. 6a(1)), is amended by deleting the second and third sentences thereof and substituting the following: "For the purpose of diminishing, eliminating, or preventing such burden, the commission shall, from time to time, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, by order, proclaim and fix such limits on the amounts of trading which may be done or positions which may be held by any person under contracts of sale of such commodity for future delivery on or subject to the rules of any contract market as the commission finds are necessary to diminish, eliminate, or prevent such burden. In determining whether any person has exceeded such limits, the positions held and trading done by any persons directly or indirectly controlled by such person
