[H. R. 5754]

To amend section 1263 of title 18 of the United States Code to require that interstate shipments of intoxicating liquors be accompanied by bill of lading, or other document, showing certain information in lieu of requiring such to be marked on the package.

Intoxicating liquors. Interstate shipments, bill of lading requirement. 62 Stat. 761.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 1263 of title 18 of the United States Code is amended to read as follows: "Whoever knowingly ships into any place within the United States any package containing any spirituous, vinous, malted, or other fermented liquor, or any compound containing any spirituous, vinous, malted, or other fermented liquor fit for use for beverage purposes, unless such shipment is accompanied by copy of a bill of lading, or other document showing the name of the consignee, the nature of its contents, and the quantity contained therein, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both."

Penalty.

SEC. 2. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as indicating an intent on the part of Congress to deprive any State of the power to enact additional prohibitions with respect to the shipment of intoxicating liquors.

Effective date.

SEC. 3. This Act shall become effective ninety days after the date of its enactment.
