

of nuclear powered major combatant vessels and to provide for an adequate industrial base for the research, development, design, construction, operation, and maintenance for such vessels. New construction major combatant vessels for the strike forces of the United States Navy authorized subsequent to the date of the enactment of this Act becomes law shall be nuclear powered, except as provided in this title.

SEC. 802. For the purposes of this title, the term "major combatant vessels for the strike forces of the United States Navy" means—

(1) combatant submarines for strategic or tactical missions, or both;

(2) combatant vessels intended to operate in combat in aircraft carrier task groups (that is, aircraft carriers and the cruisers, frigates, and destroyers which accompany aircraft carriers); and

(3) those types of combatant vessels referred to in clauses (1) and (2) above designed for independent combat missions where essentially unlimited high speed endurance will be of significant military value.

SEC. 803. The Secretary of Defense shall submit to Congress each calendar year, at the same time the President submits the budget to Congress under section 201 of the Budget and Accounting Act, 1921 (31 U.S.C. 11), a written report regarding the application of nuclear propulsion to major combatant vessels for the strike forces of the United States Navy. The report shall identify contract placement dates for their construction and shall identify the Department of Defense Five Year Defense Program for construction of nuclear powered major combatant vessels for the strike forces of the United States Navy.

SEC. 804. All requests for authorizations or appropriations from Congress for major combatant vessels for the strike forces of the United States Navy shall be for construction of nuclear powered major combatant vessels for such forces unless and until the President has fully advised the Congress that construction of nuclear powered vessels for such purpose is not in the national interest. Such report of the President to the Congress shall include for consideration by Congress an alternate program of nuclear powered ships with appropriate design, cost, and schedule information.

AN ACT

To amend the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 to implement the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft; to provide a more effective program to prevent aircraft piracy; and for other purposes.

August 5, 1974
[S. 39]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

TITLE I—ANTIHIJACKING ACT OF 1974

Federal Aviation Act of 1958, amendments.
Antihijacking Act of 1974.
49 USC 1301 note.

SEC. 101. This title may be cited as the "Antihijacking Act of 1974".

SEC. 102. Section 101(32) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1301(32)), relating to the definition of the term "special aircraft jurisdiction of the United States", is amended to read as follows:

"(32) The term 'special aircraft jurisdiction of the United States' includes—

"(a) civil aircraft of the United States;

"Special aircraft jurisdiction of the United States."

“(b) aircraft of the national defense forces of the United States;

“(c) any other aircraft within the United States;

“(d) any other aircraft outside the United States—

“(i) that has its next scheduled destination or last point of departure in the United States, if that aircraft next actually lands in the United States; or

“(ii) having ‘an offense’, as defined in the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft, committed aboard, if that aircraft lands in the United States with the alleged offender still aboard; and

“(e) other aircraft leased without crew to a lessee who has his principal place of business in the United States, or if none, who has his permanent residence in the United States;

while that aircraft is in flight, which is from the moment when all external doors are closed following embarkation until the moment when one such door is opened for disembarkation or in the case of a forced landing, until the competent authorities take over the responsibility for the aircraft and for the persons and property aboard.”

22 UST 1641.

Aircraft piracy.

SEC. 103. (a) Paragraph (2) of subsection (i) of section 902 of such Act (49 U.S.C. 1472), relating to the definition of the term “aircraft piracy”, is amended by striking out “threat of force or violence and” inserting in lieu thereof “threat of force or violence, or by any other form of intimidation, and”.

(b) Section 902 of such Act is further amended by redesignating subsections (n) and (o) as subsections (o) and (p), respectively, and by inserting immediately after subsection (m) the following new subsection:

“AIRCRAFT PIRACY OUTSIDE SPECIAL AIRCRAFT JURISDICTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Penalty.

“(n) (1) Whoever aboard an aircraft in flight outside the special aircraft jurisdiction of the United States commits ‘an offense’, as defined in the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft, and is afterward found in the United States shall be punished—

“(A) by imprisonment for not less than 20 years; or

“(B) if the death of another person results from the commission or attempted commission of the offense, by death or by imprisonment for life.

“(2) A person commits ‘an offense’, as defined in the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft when, while aboard an aircraft in flight, he—

“(A) unlawfully, by force or threat thereof, or by any other form of intimidation, seizes, or exercises control of, that aircraft, or attempts to perform any such act; or “(B) is an accomplice of a person who performs or attempts to perform any such act.

“(3) This subsection shall only be applicable if the place of takeoff or the place of actual landing of the aircraft on board which the offense, as defined in paragraph (2) of this subsection, is committed is situated outside the territory of the State of registration of that aircraft.

“(4) For purposes of this subsection an aircraft is considered to be in flight from the moment when all the external doors are closed following embarkation until the moment when one such door is opened for disembarkation, or in the case of a forced landing, until the competent authorities take over responsibility for the aircraft and for the persons and property aboard.”

(c) Subsection (o) of such section 902, as so redesignated by subsection (b) of this section, is amended by striking out “subsections (i) through (m)” and inserting in lieu thereof “subsections (i) through (n)”.

Ante, p. 410.

SEC. 104. (a) Section 902(i)(1) is the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1472(i)(1)) is amended to read as follows:

Penalty.

“(1) Whoever commits or attempts to commit aircraft piracy, as herein defined, shall be punished—

“(A) by imprisonment for not less than 20 years; or

“(B) if the death of another person results from the commission or attempted commission of the offense, by death or by imprisonment for life.”

(b) Section 902(i) of such Act is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

Supra.

“(3) An attempt to commit aircraft piracy shall be within the special aircraft jurisdiction of the United States even though the aircraft is not in flight at the time of such attempt if the aircraft would have been within the special aircraft jurisdiction of the United States had the offense of aircraft piracy been completed.”

SEC. 105. Section 903 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1473), relating to venue and prosecution of offenses, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“PROCEDURE IN RESPECT OF PENALTY FOR AIRCRAFT PIRACY

“(c) (1) A person shall be subjected to the penalty of death for any offense prohibited by section 902(i) or 902(n) of this Act only if a hearing is held in accordance with this subsection.

Supra.
Ante, p. 410.

“(2) When a defendant is found guilty of or pleads guilty to an offense under section 902(i) or 902(n) of this Act for which one of the sentences provided is death, the judge who presided at the trial or before whom the guilty plea was entered shall conduct a separate sentencing hearing to determine the existence or nonexistence of the factors set forth in paragraphs (6) and (7), for the purpose of determining the sentence to be imposed. The hearing shall not be held if the Government stipulates that none of the aggravating factors set forth in paragraph (7) exists or that one or more of the mitigating factors set forth in paragraph (6) exists. The hearings shall be conducted—

Sentencing hearing.

“(A) before the jury which determined the defendant’s guilt;

“(B) before a jury impaneled for the purpose of the hearing if—

“(i) the defendant was convicted upon a plea of guilty;

“(ii) the defendant was convicted after a trial before the court sitting without a jury; or

“(iii) the jury which determined the defendant’s guilt has been discharged by the court for good cause; or

“(C) before the court alone, upon the motion of the defendant and with the approval of the court and of the Government.

- Disclosure. “(3) In the sentencing hearing the court shall disclose to the defendant or his counsel all material contained in any presentence report, if one has been prepared, except such material as the court determines is required to be withheld for the protection of human life or for the protection of the national security. Any presentence information withheld from the defendant shall not be considered in determining the existence or the nonexistence of the factors set forth in paragraph (6) or (7). Any information relevant to any of the mitigating factors set forth in paragraph (6) may be presented by either the Government or the defendant, regardless of its admissibility under the rules governing admission of evidence at criminal trials; but the admissibility of information relevant to any of the aggravating factors set forth in paragraph (7) shall be governed by the rules governing the admission of evidence at criminal trials. The Government and the defendant shall be permitted to rebut any information received at the hearing, and shall be given fair opportunity to present argument as to the adequacy of the information to establish the existence of any of the factors set forth in paragraph (6) or (7). The burden of establishing the existence of any of the factors set forth in paragraph (7) is on the Government. The burden of establishing the existence of any of the factors set forth in paragraph (6) is on the defendant.
- Rebuttals.
- Special verdict. “(4) The jury or, if there is no jury, the court shall return a special verdict setting forth its findings as to the existence or nonexistence of each of the factors set forth in paragraph (6) and as to the existence or nonexistence of each of the factors set forth in paragraph (7).
- Death sentence. “(5) If the jury or, if there is no jury, the court finds by a preponderance of the information that one or more of the factors set forth in paragraph (7) exists and that none of the factors set forth in paragraph (6) exists, the court shall sentence the defendant to death. If the jury or, if there is no jury, the court finds that none of the aggravating factors set forth in paragraph (7) exists, or finds that one or more of the mitigating factors set forth in paragraph (6) exists, the court shall not sentence the defendant to death but shall impose any other sentence provided for the offense for which the defendant was convicted.
- Exceptions. “(6) The court shall not impose the sentence of death on the defendant if the jury or, if there is no jury, the court finds by a special verdict as provided in paragraph (4) that at the time of the offense—
- “(A) he was under the age of eighteen;
- “(B) his capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of law was significantly impaired, but not so impaired as to constitute a defense to prosecution;
- “(C) he was under unusual and substantial duress, although not such duress as to constitute a defense to prosecution;
- “(D) he was a principal (as defined in section 2(a) of title 18 of the United States Code) in the offense, which was committed by another, but his participation was relatively minor, although not so minor as to constitute a defense to prosecution; or
- “(E) he could not reasonably have foreseen that his conduct in the course of the commission of the offense for which he was convicted would cause, or would create a grave risk of causing death to another person.
- Death sentence, imposition. “(7) If no factor set forth in paragraph (6) is present, the court shall impose the sentence of death on the defendant if the jury or, if there is no jury, the court finds by a special verdict as provided in paragraph (4) that—

“(A) the death of another person resulted from the commission of the offense but after the defendant had seized or exercised control of the aircraft; or

“(B) the death of another person resulted from the commission or attempted commission of the offense, and—

“(i) the defendant has been convicted of another Federal or State offense (committed either before or at the time of the commission or attempted commission of the offense) for which a sentence of life imprisonment or death was impossible;

“(ii) the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more State or Federal offenses with a penalty of more than one year imprisonment (committed on different occasions before the time of the commission or attempted commission of the offense), involving the infliction of serious bodily injury upon another person;

“(iii) in the commission or attempted commission of the offense, the defendant knowingly created a grave risk of death to another person in addition to the victim of the offense or attempted offense; or

“(iv) the defendant committed or attempted to commit the offense in an especially heinous, cruel, or depraved manner.”.

SEC. 106. Title XI of such Act (49 U.S.C. 1501–1513) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sections:

“SUSPENSION OF AIR SERVICES

“SEC. 1114. (a) Whenever the President determines that a foreign nation is acting in a manner inconsistent with the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft, or if he determines that a foreign nation permits the use of territory under its jurisdiction as a base of operations or training or as a sanctuary for, or in any way arms, aids, or abets, any terrorist organization which knowingly uses the illegal seizure of aircraft or the threat thereof as an instrument of policy, he may, without notice or hearing and for as long as he determines necessary to assure the security of aircraft against unlawful seizure, suspend (1) the right of any air carrier or foreign air carrier to engage in foreign air transportation, and the right of any person to operate aircraft in foreign air commerce, to and from that foreign nation, and (2) the right of any foreign air carrier to engage in foreign air transportation, and the right of any foreign person to operate aircraft in foreign air commerce, between the United States and any foreign nation which maintains air service between itself and that foreign nation. Notwithstanding section 1102 of this Act, the President's authority to suspend rights under this section shall be deemed to be a condition to any certificate of public convenience and necessity or foreign air carrier or foreign aircraft permit issued by the Civil Aeronautics Board and any air carrier operating certificate or foreign air carrier operating specification issued by the Secretary of Transportation.

“(b) It shall be unlawful for any air carrier or foreign air carrier to engage in foreign air transportation, or for any person to operate

“SECURITY STANDARDS IN FOREIGN AIR TRANSPORTATION

49 USC 1515.

“SEC. 1115. (a) Not later than 30 days after the date of enactment of this section, the Secretary of State shall notify each nation with which the United States has a bilateral air transport agreement or, in the absence of such agreement, each nation whose airline or airlines hold a foreign air carrier permit or permits issued pursuant to section 402 of this Act, of the provisions of subsection (b) of this section.

49 USC 1372.

“(b) In any case where the Secretary of Transportation, after consultation with the competent aeronautical authorities of a foreign nation with which the United States has a bilateral air transport agreement and in accordance with the provisions of that agreement or, in the absence of such agreement, of a nation whose airline or airlines hold a foreign air carrier permit or permits issued pursuant to section 402 of this Act, finds that such nation does not effectively maintain and administer security measures relating to transportation of persons or property or mail in foreign air transportation that are equal to or above the minimum standards which are established pursuant to the Convention on International Civil Aviation, he shall notify that nation of such finding and the steps considered necessary to bring the security measures of that nation to standards at least equal to the minimum standards of such convention. In the event of failure of that nation to take such steps, the Secretary of Transportation, with the approval of the Secretary of State, may withhold, revoke, or impose conditions on the operating authority of the airline or airlines of that nation.”

61 Stat. 1180.

Sec. 107. The first sentence of section 901(a)(1) of such Act (49 U.S.C. 1471(a)(1)), relating to civil penalties, is amended by inserting “, or of section 1114,” immediately before “of this Act”.

Ante, p. 413.

Sec. 108. Subsection (a) of section 1007 of such Act (49 U.S.C. 1487), relating to judicial enforcement, is amended by inserting “or, in the case of a violation of section 1114 of this Act, the Attorney General,” immediately after “duly authorized agents.”

Sec. 109. (a) That portion of the table of contents contained in the first section of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 which appears under the side heading “(o) Investigations by Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(b) That portion of such table of contents which appears under the side heading

is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new item:

“(c) Procedure in respect of penalty for aircraft piracy.”

(c) That portion of such table of contents which appears under the center heading “TITLE XI—MISCELLANEOUS” is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new items:

“Sec. 1114. Suspension of air services.

“Sec. 1115. Security standards in foreign air transportation.”

TITLE II—AIR TRANSPORTATION SECURITY ACT OF 1974

Air Transportation Security Act of 1974.
49 USC 1356 note.

SEC. 201. This title may be cited as the "Air Transportation Security Act of 1974".

SEC. 202. Title III of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1341-1355), relating to organization of the Federal Aviation Administration and the powers and duties of the Administrator, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sections:

"SCREENING OF PASSENGERS

"PROCEDURES AND FACILITIES

"SEC. 315. (a) The Administrator shall prescribe or continue in effect reasonable regulations requiring that all passengers and all property intended to be carried in the aircraft cabin in air transportation or intrastate air transportation be screened by weapon-detecting procedures or facilities employed or operated by employees or agents of the air carrier, intrastate air carrier, or foreign air carrier prior to boarding the aircraft for such transportation. One year after the date of enactment of this section or after the effective date of such regulations, whichever is later, the Administrator may alter or amend such regulations, requiring a continuation of such screening only to the extent deemed necessary to assure security against acts of criminal violence and aircraft piracy in air transportation and intrastate air transportation. The Administrator shall submit semiannual reports to the Congress concerning the effectiveness of screening procedures under this subsection and shall advise the Congress of any regulations or amendments thereto to be prescribed pursuant to this subsection at least 30 days in advance of their effective date, unless he determines that an emergency exists which requires that such regulations or amendments take effect in less than 30 days and notifies the Congress of his determination.

"EXEMPTION AUTHORITY

"(b) The Administrator may exempt from the provisions of this section, in whole or in part, air transportation operations, other than those scheduled passenger operations performed by air carriers engaging in interstate, overseas, or foreign air transportation under a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by the Civil Aeronautics Board under section 401 of this Act or under a foreign air carrier permit issued by the Board under section 402 of this Act.

49 USC 1371.

49 USC 1372.

"AIR TRANSPORTATION SECURITY

"RULES AND REGULATIONS

"SEC. 316. (a)(1) The Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration shall prescribe such reasonable rules and regulations requiring such practices, methods, and procedures, or governing the design, materials, and construction of aircraft, as he may deem necessary to protect persons and property aboard aircraft operating in air transportation or intrastate air transportation against acts of criminal violence and aircraft piracy.

49 USC 1357.

"(2) In prescribing and amending rules and regulations under paragraph (1) of this subsection, the Administrator shall—

"(A) consult with the Secretary of Transportation, the Attorney General, and such other Federal, State, and local agencies as he may deem appropriate;

“(B) consider whether any proposed rule or regulation is consistent with protection of passengers in air transportation or intrastate air transportation against acts of criminal violence and aircraft piracy and the public interest in the promotion of air transportation and intrastate air transportation;

“(C) to the maximum extent practicable, require uniform procedures for the inspection, detention, and search of persons and property in air transportation and intrastate air transportation to assure their safety and to assure that they will receive courteous and efficient treatment, by air carriers, their agents and employees, and by Federal, State, and local law enforcement personnel engaged in carrying out any air transportation security program established under this section; and

“(D) consider the extent to which any proposed rule or regulation will contribute to carrying out the purposes of this section.

“PERSONNEL

“(b) Regulations prescribed under subsection (a) of this section shall require operators of airports regularly serving air carriers certified by the Civil Aeronautics Board to establish air transportation security programs providing a law enforcement presence and capability at such airports adequate to insure the safety of persons traveling in air transportation or intrastate air transportation from acts of criminal violence and aircraft piracy. Such regulations shall authorize such airport operators to utilize the services of qualified State, local, and private law enforcement personnel whose services are made available by their employers. In any case in which the Administrator determines, after receipt of notification from an airport operator in such form as the Administrator may prescribe, that qualified State, local, and private law enforcement personnel are not available in sufficient numbers to carry out the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the Administrator may, by order, authorize such airport operator to utilize, on a reimbursable basis, the services of—

“(1) personnel employed by any other Federal department or agency, with the consent of the head of such department or agency; and

“(2) personnel employed directly by the Administrator; at the airport concerned in such numbers and for such period of time as the Administrator may deem necessary to supplement such State, local, and private law enforcement personnel. In making the determination referred to in the preceding sentence the Administrator shall take into consideration—

“(A) the number of passengers enplaned at such airport;

“(B) the extent of anticipated risk of criminal violence and aircraft piracy at such airport or to the air carrier aircraft operations at such airport; and

“(C) the availability at such airport of qualified State or local law enforcement personnel.

“TRAINING

“(c) The Administrator may provide training for personnel employed by him to carry out any air transportation security program established under this section and for other personnel, including State, local, and private law enforcement personnel, whose services may be utilized in carrying out any such air transportation security program. The Administrator shall prescribe uniform standards with respect to training provided personnel whose services are utilized to enforce any such air transportation security program, including State, local, and private law enforcement personnel, and uniform standards with respect to minimum qualifications for personnel eligible to receive such training.

“RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT; CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

“(d) (1) The Administrator shall conduct such research (including behavioral research) and development as he may deem appropriate to develop, modify, test, and evaluate systems, procedures, facilities, and devices to protect persons and property aboard aircraft in air transportation or intrastate air transportation against acts of criminal violence and aircraft piracy.

“(2) Notwithstanding section 552 of title 5, United States Code, relating to freedom of information, the Administrator shall prescribe such regulations as he may deem necessary to prohibit disclosure of any information obtained or developed in the conduct of research and development activities under this subsection if, in the opinion of the Administrator, the disclosure of such information—

Regulations.

“(A) would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy (including, but not limited to, information contained in any personnel, medical, or similar file);

“(B) would reveal trade secrets or privileged or confidential commercial or financial information obtained from any person; or

“(C) would be detrimental to the safety of persons traveling in air transportation.

Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize the withholding of information from the duly authorized committees of the Congress.

“OVERALL FEDERAL RESPONSIBILITY

“(e) (1) Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, no power, function, or duty of the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration under this section shall be assigned or transferred to any other Federal department or agency.

“(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration shall have exclusive responsibility for the direction of any law enforcement activity affecting the safety of persons aboard aircraft in flight involved in the commission of an offense under section 902(i) or 902(n) of this Act. Other Federal departments and agencies shall, upon request by the Administrator, provide such assistance as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this paragraph.

Ante, pp. 410, 411.

“(3) For the purposes of this subsection, an aircraft is considered in flight from the moment when all external doors are closed following embarkation until the moment when one such door is opened for disembarkation.

“DEFINITION

“(f) For the purposes of this section, the term ‘law enforcement personnel’ means individuals—

“(1) authorized to carry and use firearms,

“(2) vested with such police power of arrest as the Administrator deems necessary to carry out this section, and

“(3) identifiable by appropriate indicia of authority.”

SEC. 203. Section 902(1) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 is amended to read as follows:

49 USC 1472.

“CARRYING WEAPONS OR EXPLOSIVES ABOARD AIRCRAFT

“(1) (1) Whoever, while aboard, or while attempting to board, any aircraft in, or intended for operation in, air transportation or intrastate air transportation, has on or about his person or his property a concealed deadly or dangerous weapon, which is, or would be, accessible to such person in flight, or any person who has on or about his person, or who has placed, attempted to place, or attempted to have placed aboard such aircraft any bomb, or similar explosive or incendiary device, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

Penalty.

Penalty.

“(2) Whoever willfully and without regard for the safety of human life, or with reckless disregard for the safety of human life, shall commit an act prohibited by paragraph (1) of this subsection, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

Exceptions.

“(3) This subsection shall not apply to law enforcement officers of any municipal or State government, or the Federal Government, who are authorized or required within their official capacities to carry arms, or to persons who may be authorized, under regulations issued by the Administrator, to carry deadly or dangerous weapons in air transportation or intrastate air transportation; not shall it apply to persons transporting weapons contained in baggage which is not accessible to passengers in flight if the presence of such weapons has been declared to the air carrier.”

SEC. 204. Section 1111 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1511), relating to authority to refuse transportation, is amended to read as follows:

“AUTHORITY TO REFUSE TRANSPORTATION

“SEC. 1111. (a) The Administrator shall, by regulation, require any air carrier, intrastate air carrier, or foreign air carrier to refuse to transport—

Ante, p. 415.

“(1) any person who does not consent to a search of his person, as prescribed in section 315(a) of this Act, to determine whether he is unlawfully carrying a dangerous weapon, explosive, or other destructive substance, or

“(2) any property of any person who does not consent to a search or inspection of such property to determine whether it unlawfully contains a dangerous weapon, explosive, or other destructive substance.

Subject to reasonable rules and regulations prescribed by the Administrator, any such carrier may also refuse transportation of a passenger or property when, in the opinion of the carrier, such transportation would or might be inimical to safety of flight.

“(b) Any agreement for the carriage of persons or property in air transportation or intrastate air transportation by an air carrier, intrastate air carrier, or foreign air carrier for compensation or hire shall be deemed to include an agreement that such carriage shall be refused when consent to search such persons or inspect such property for the purposes enumerated in subsection (a) of this section is not given.”

Ante, p. 413.

SEC. 205. Title XI of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1501-1513) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

“LIABILITY FOR CERTAIN PROPERTY

Regulations.
49 USC 1516.

“SEC. 1116. The Civil Aeronautics Board shall issue such regulations or orders as may be necessary to require that any air carrier receiving for transportation as baggage any property of a person traveling in air transportation, which property cannot lawfully be carried by such person in the aircraft cabin by reason of any Federal law or regulation, shall assume liability to such person, at a reasonable charge and subject to reasonable terms and conditions, within the amount declared to the air carrier by such person, for the full actual loss or damage to such property caused by such air carrier.”

SEC. 206. Section 101 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1301), relating to definitions, is amended by redesignating paragraphs (22) through (36) as paragraphs (24) through (38), respectively, and by inserting immediately after paragraph (21) the following new paragraphs:

“(22) ‘Intrastate air carrier’ means any citizen of the United States who undertakes, whether directly or indirectly or by a lease or any other arrangement, to engage solely in intrastate air transportation.

“(23) ‘Intrastate air transportation’ means the carriage of persons or property as a common carrier for compensation or hire, by turbojet-powered aircraft capable of carrying thirty or more persons, wholly within the same State of the United States.”

SEC. 207. (a) That portion of the table of contents contained in the first section of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 which appears under the center heading: “TITLE III—ORGANIZATION OF AGENCY AND POWERS AND DUTIES OF ADMINISTRATOR” is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new items:

“Sec. 315. Screening of passengers in air transportation.
