SEC. 301. The Armed Forces are authorized strengths for active duty personnel as of September 30, 1980, as follows:

- (1) The Army, 776,700.
- (2) The Navy, 528,000.
- (3) The Marine Corps, 189,000.
- (4) The Air Force, 558,000.

AUTHORIZED STRENGTHS OF RESERVE GENERAL AND FLAG OFFICERS

SEC. 302. (a) Section 3218 of title 10, United States Code, is amended by striking out "and those serving in the National Guard Bureau" and inserting in lieu thereof "those serving in the National Guard Bureau, and those counted under section 3202 of this title".

10 USC 5457. (b) Section 5457(a) of such title is amended by inserting after "rear admiral" a comma and "exclusive of those counted under section 5442 of this title,".

10 USC 5458. (c) Section 5458(a) of such title is amended by inserting after "combined" a comma and "exclusive of those counted under section 5443 of this title,".

10 USC 8218. (d) Section 8218 of such title is amended by striking out "and those serving in the National Guard Bureau" and inserting in lieu thereof "those serving in the National Guard Bureau, and those counted under section 8202 of this title".

ANNUAL OFFICER GRADE DISTRIBUTION REPORT AND PROMOTION PLAN TO BE INCLUDED AS PART OF THE ANNUAL MANPOWER REQUIREMENTS REPORT RATHER THAN AS A SEPARATE REPORT Repeal.

10 USC 686. SEC. 303. (a)(1) Section 686 of title 10, United States Code, providing for an annual officer grade distribution report, is repealed.

(2) The table of sections at the beginning of chapter 39 of such title is amended by striking out the item relating to section 686.

10 USC 138. (b) Paragraph (3) of section 138(c) of such title, providing for an annual manpower requirements report, is amended to read as follows:

Report to Congress. "(3)(A) The Secretary of Defense shall submit to Congress a written report, not later than February 15 of each fiscal year, recommending the annual active duty end strength level for each component of the armed forces for the next fiscal year and the annual civilian personnel end strength level for each component of the Department of Defense for the next fiscal year, and shall include in that report justification for the strength levels recommended and an explanation of the relationship between the personnel strength levels recommended for that fiscal year and the national security policies of the United States in effect at the time. The justification and explanation shall specify in detail for all military forces (including each land force division, carrier and other major combatant vessel, air wing, and other comparable unit) the—

- "(i) unit mission and capability;

“(ii) strategy which the unit supports; and

“(iii) area of deployment and illustrative areas of potential deployment, including a description of any United States commitment to defend such areas.

“(B) The Secretary of Defense shall also include in the report required under subparagraph (A) a detailed discussion of—

“(i) the manpower required for support and overhead functions within the armed forces and the Department of Defense;

“(ii) the relationship of the manpower required for support and overhead functions to the primary combat missions and support policies; and

“(iii) the manpower required to be stationed or assigned to duty in foreign countries and aboard vessels located outside the territorial limits of the United States, its territories, and possessions.

“(C) In such report, the Secretary of Defense shall also identify, define, and group by mission and by region the types of military bases, installations, and facilities and shall provide an explanation and justification of the relationship between this base structure and the proposed military force structure together with a comprehensive identification of base operating support costs and an evaluation of possible alternatives to reduce such costs.

“(D) The Secretary of Defense shall also include in such report with respect to each armed force under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of a military department—

“(i) the estimated requirements in members on active duty during the next fiscal year;

“(ii) the estimated number of commissioned officers in each grade on active duty and to be promoted during the next fiscal year; and

“(iii) an analysis of the distribution by grade of commissioned officers on active duty at the time the report is prepared.”

TITLE IV—RESERVE FORCES

AUTHORIZATION OF STRENGTHS

SEC. 401. (a) For fiscal year 1980, the Selected Reserve of the reserve components of the Armed Forces shall be programmed to attain average strengths of not less than the following:

- (1) The Army National Guard of the United States, 355,700.
- (2) The Army Reserve, 197,400.
- (3) The Naval Reserve, 87,000.
- (4) The Marine Corps Reserve, 33,600.
- (5) The Air National Guard of the United States, 92,500.
- (6) The Air Force Reserve, 57,300.
- (7) The Coast Guard Reserve, 11,700.

(b) Within the average strengths prescribed by subsection (a), the reserve components of the Armed Forces are authorized, as of September 30, 1980, the following number of Reserves to be serving on full-time active duty for the purpose of organizing, administering, recruiting, instructing, or training the reserve components:

- (1) The Army National Guard of the United States, 6,244.
- (2) The Army Reserve, 4,288.
- (3) The Naval Reserve, 707.
- (4) The Marine Corps Reserve, 67.
- (5) The Air National Guard of the United States, 1,560.
- (6) The Air Force Reserve, 681.

Reduction.

(c) The average strength prescribed by subsection (a) for the Selected Reserve of any reserve component shall be proportionately reduced by (1) the total authorized strength of units organized to serve as units of the Selected Reserve of such component which are on active duty (other than for training) at any time during the fiscal year, and (2) the total number of individual members not in units organized to serve as units of the Selected Reserve of such component who are on active duty (other than for training or for unsatisfactory participation in training) without their consent at any time during the fiscal year. Whenever such units or such individual members are released from active duty during any fiscal year, the average strength prescribed for such fiscal year for the Selected Reserve of such reserve component shall be proportionately increased by the total authorized strength of such units and by the total number of such individual members.

AMENDMENTS TO SELECTED RESERVE EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

SEC. 402. (a) Section 2131(b)(1) of title 10, United States Code, is amended by striking out "50 percent" and inserting in lieu thereof "100 percent".

10 USC 2133.

(b) Section 2133(b) of such title is amended to read as follows:
"(b)(1) A member who fails to participate satisfactorily in training with his unit, if he is a member of a unit, during a term of enlistment for which the member entered into an agreement under section 2132(a)(4) of this title shall refund an amount computed under paragraph (2) unless the failure to participate in training was due to reasons beyond the control of the member. Any refund by a member under this section shall not affect the period of obligation of such member to serve as a Reserve.

"(2) The amount of any refund under paragraph (1) shall be the amount equal to the product of—

"(A) the number of months of obligated service remaining during that term of enlistment divided by the total number of months of obligated service of that term of enlistment; and

"(B) the total amount of educational assistance provided to the member under section 2131 of this title."

10 USC 2131
note.

(c) The amendments made by this section shall apply only to individuals enlisting in the Reserves after September 30, 1979.

DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY OF SECRETARY CONCERNED TO RETAIN CERTAIN RESERVE OFFICERS ON ACTIVE DUTY UNTIL AGE 60

SEC. 403. (a) Section 3855 of title 10, United States Code, is amended by inserting "Veterinary Corps," after "Dental Corps,".

10 USC 8855.

(b) Section 8855 of such title is amended by inserting "veterinary officer," after "dental officer,".

REPEAL OF AUTHORITY FOR ADDITIONAL PAY FOR PERFORMANCE OF AD-MINISTRATIVE FUNCTIONS BY OFFICERS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD AND RESERVE COMPONENTS

Repeal.

SEC. 404. (a)(1) Section 309 of title 37, United States Code, is repealed.

(2) The table of sections at the beginning of chapter 5 of such title is amended by striking out the item relating to section 309.

(b) The amendments made by this section shall apply only with respect to administrative functions performed after September 30, 1980.

37 USC 309 note.

TITLE V—CIVILIAN PERSONNEL

AUTHORIZATION OF END STRENGTH

SEC. 501. (a) The Department of Defense is authorized a strength in civilian personnel, as of September 30, 1980, of 983,600.

(b) The strength for civilian personnel prescribed in subsection (a) shall be apportioned among the Department of the Army, the Department of the Navy (including the Marine Corps), the Department of the Air Force, and the agencies of the Department of Defense (other than the military departments) in such numbers as the Secretary of Defense shall prescribe. The Secretary of Defense shall report to the Congress within sixty days after the date of the enactment of this Act on the manner in which the initial allocation of civilian personnel is made among the military departments and the agencies of the Department of Defense (other than the military departments) and shall include the rationale for each allocation.

Report to Congress.

(c) In computing the strength for civilian personnel, there shall be included all direct-hire and indirect-hire civilian personnel employed to perform military functions administered by the Department of Defense (other than those performed by the National Security Agency) whether employed on a full-time, part-time, or intermittent basis, but excluding special employment categories for students and disadvantaged youth such as the stay-in-school campaign, the temporary summer aid program and the Federal junior fellowship program, and personnel participating in the worker-trainee opportunity program. Whenever a function, power, or duty, or activity is transferred or assigned to a department or agency of the Department of Defense from a department or agency outside of the Department of Defense, or from another department or agency within the Department of Defense, the civilian personnel end strength authorized for such departments or agencies of the Department of Defense affected shall be adjusted to reflect any increases or decreases in civilian personnel required as a result of such transfer or assignment.

(d) When the Secretary of Defense determines that such action is necessary in the national interest, he may authorize the employment of civilian personnel in excess of the number authorized by subsection (a), but such additional number may not exceed 1¼ percent of the total number of civilian personnel authorized for the Department of Defense by subsection (a). The Secretary of Defense shall promptly notify the Congress of any authorization to increase civilian personnel strength under the authority of this subsection.

Personnel increase, limitation.

Notification to Congress.

(e) During fiscal year 1980, the Secretary of Defense shall manage the manpower resources of the Department of Defense in a manner that will insure that those functions of the Department of Defense involving maintenance, construction, engineering acquisition, or repair activities will be provided civilian manpower resources sufficient to fulfill the work requirements for which funds have been appropriated on a schedule consistent with the requirements of national security and military readiness.

TITLE VI—MILITARY TRAINING STUDENT LOADSAUTHORIZATION OF TRAINING STUDENT LOADS

SEC. 601. (a) For fiscal year 1980, the components of the Armed Forces are authorized average military training student loads as follows:

- (1) The Army, 54,865.
- (2) The Navy, 61,913.
- (3) The Marine Corps, 22,618.
- (4) The Air Force, 43,249.
- (5) The Army National Guard of the United States, 7,985.
- (6) The Army Reserve, 4,772.
- (7) The Naval Reserve, 906.
- (8) The Marine Corps Reserve, 3,156.
- (9) The Air National Guard of the United States, 1,958.
- (10) The Air Force Reserve, 1,276.

(b) In addition to the number authorized for the Army, the Army National Guard of the United States, and the Army Reserve in subsection (a), such components are authorized military training student loads of not less than the following numbers to be utilized solely for one station unit training:

- (1) The Army, 19,603.
- (2) The Army National Guard of the United States, 6,631.
- (3) The Army Reserve, 1,556.

(c) The average military training student loads for the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, and the Air Force and the Reserve components authorized in subsection (a) for fiscal year 1980 shall be adjusted consistent with the manpower strengths authorized in titles III, IV, and V of this Act. Such adjustment shall be apportioned among the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, and the Air Force and the Reserve components in such manner as the Secretary of Defense shall prescribe.

Apportionment adjustment.

TITLE VII—CIVIL DEFENSEAUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

SEC. 701. There is authorized to be appropriated for fiscal year 1980 for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Federal Civil Defense Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. App. 2251-2297) the sum of $106,800,000.

INCREASE IN AMOUNTS THAT MAY BE APPROPRIATED FOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO STATES FOR PERSONNEL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

SEC. 702. The last proviso of section 408 of the Civil Defense Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. App. 2260) is amended by striking out everything after the last semicolon and inserting in lieu thereof "and appropriations for contributions to the States for personnel and administrative expenses under section 205 shall not exceed $40,000,000 per annum."

50 USC app.

TITLE VIII—GENERAL PROVISIONSAMENDMENTS TO THE UNIFORM CODE OF MILITARY JUSTICE

SEC. 801. (a) Section 802 of title 10, United States Code (article 2 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice), is amended—

- (1) by inserting "(a)" before "The" at the beginning of such section; and
- (2) by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

“(b) The voluntary enlistment of any person who has the capacity to understand the significance of enlisting in the armed forces shall be valid for purposes of jurisdiction under subsection (a) of this section and a change of status from civilian to member of the armed forces shall be effective upon the taking of the oath of enlistment.

“(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person serving with an armed force who—

“(1) submitted voluntarily to military authority;

“(2) met the mental competency and minimum age qualifications of sections 504 and 505 of this title at the time of voluntary submission to military authority;

“(3) received military pay or allowances; and

“(4) performed military duties;

is subject to this chapter until such person's active service has been terminated in accordance with law or regulations promulgated by the Secretary concerned.”

(b) Section 836(a) of such title (article 36(a) of the Uniform Code of Military Justice) is amended by striking out “The procedure, including modes of proof, in cases before courts-martial, courts of inquiry, military commissions, and other military tribunals” and inserting in lieu thereof “Pretrial, trial, and post-trial procedures, including modes of proof, for cases arising under this chapter triable in courts-martial, military commissions and other military tribunals, and procedures for courts of inquiry,”. 10 USC 836.

WAIVER OF APPLICABILITY OF OMB CIRCULAR A-76 TO CONTRACTING OUT OF CERTAIN RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES

SEC. 802. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), neither the implementing instructions for, nor the provisions of, Office of Management and Budget Circular A-76 (issued on August 30, 1967, and reissued on October 18, 1976, June 13, 1977, and March 29, 1979) shall control or be used for policy guidance for the obligation or expenditure of any funds which under section 138(a)(2) of title 10, United States Code, are required to be specifically authorized by law. 10 USC 138 note.

(b) Funds which under section 138(a)(2) of title 10, United States Code, are required to be specifically authorized by law may be obligated or expended for operation or support of installations or equipment used for research and development (including maintenance support of laboratories, operation and maintenance of test ranges, and maintenance of test aircraft and ships) in compliance with the implementing instructions for and the provisions of such Office of Management and Budget Circular.

(c) No law enacted after the date of the enactment of this Act shall be held, considered, or construed as amending, superseding, or otherwise modifying any provision of this section unless such law does so by specifically and explicitly amending, repealing, or superseding this section.

AMENDMENTS RELATING TO THE UNIFORMED SERVICES UNIVERSITY OF THE HEALTH SCIENCES

SEC. 803. (a) Section 2112(b) of title 10, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: “In so prescribing the number of persons to be graduated from the University, the Secretary of Defense shall, upon recommendation of the Board of Regents, institute actions necessary to ensure the maximum number of first-year enrollments in the University consistent with the academic capacity of the University and the needs of the uniformed services for medical personnel.”

10 USC 2114.

(b) Section 2114(b) of such title is amended by striking out “uniform” in the first sentence of such section and inserting in lieu thereof “uniformed”.

10 USC 2115.

(c)(1) The first two sentences of section 2115 of such title are amended to read as follows: “The Secretary of Defense may allow not more than 20 percent of the graduates of each class at the University to perform civilian Federal service for not less than seven years following the completion of their professional education in lieu of active duty in a uniformed service if the needs of the uniformed services do not require that such graduates perform active duty in a uniformed service and as long as the Secretary of Defense does not recall such persons to active duty in the uniformed services. Such persons who execute an agreement in writing to perform such civilian Federal service may be released from active duty following the completion of their professional education.”

(2) The section heading of such section is amended to read as follows:

“§2115. Graduates: limitation on number permitted to perform civilian Federal service”.

(3) The item relating to section 2115 in the table of sections at the beginning of chapter 104 of such title is amended to read as follows:

improvements to be made in readiness by weapons system, program, or activity.

QUARTERLY SELECTED ACQUISITION REPORTS TO CONGRESS

SEC. 809. Section 811(a) of the Department of Defense Appropriation Authorization Act, 1976 (Public Law 94-106; 89 Stat. 539) is amended to read as follows:

10 USC 139 note.

“(a) Beginning with the quarter ending December 31, 1979, the Secretary of Defense shall submit quarterly to the Congress written selected acquisition reports for those major defense systems which are estimated to require a total cumulative financing for research, development, test, and evaluation in excess of $75,000,000 or a cumulative production investment in excess of $300,000,000. The report for the quarter ending on December 31 of any fiscal year shall be submitted within 20 days after the President transmits the Budget to the Congress for the following fiscal year, and the reports for the other three quarters of any fiscal year shall be submitted within 30 days after the end of the quarter. If a preliminary report is submitted for any quarter, then the final report for such quarter shall be submitted to the Congress within 15 days after the submission of such preliminary report.”

Reports to Congress.
10 USC 139 note.

AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS FOR ASSISTANCE FOR 1980 OLYMPIC WINTER GAMES

SEC. 810. There is authorized to be appropriated to the Secretary of Defense for fiscal year 1980 an amount not to exceed $10,000,000 for the purpose of providing assistance for the 1980 Olympic winter games, as authorized by section 816(a) of the Department of Defense Appropriation Authorization Act, 1979 (Public Law 95-485; 92 Stat. 1626). Except for funds used for pay and nontravel related allowances of members of the Armed Forces, no funds may be obligated or expended for the purpose of carrying out such section unless specifically appropriated for such purpose. The costs for pay and nontravel related allowances of members of the Armed Forces may not be charged to appropriations made pursuant to this authorization.

PRESIDENTIAL RECOMMENDATIONS FOR SELECTIVE SERVICE REFORM

SEC. 811. (a) The President shall prepare and transmit to the Congress a plan for a fair and equitable reform of the existing law providing for registration and induction of persons for training and service in the Armed Forces. Such plan shall include recommendations with respect to—

Plan, transmittal to Congress.
50 USC app. 451 note.

(1) the desirability and feasibility of resuming registration under the Military Selective Service Act as in existence on the date of the enactment of this Act;

(2) the desirability and feasibility of establishing a method of automatically registering persons under the Military Selective Service Act through a centralized, automated system using existing records, together with a discussion of the impact of such method, or of alternative methods of establishing such a registration system, on privacy rights under the Constitution and under statutes protecting such rights (including section 552a of title 5, United States Code, commonly referred to as the “Privacy Act”) and any proposal for reform of such Privacy Act or other statutes, relevant court decisions relating to Selective Service procedures, and the impact of such alternative methods on other constitutional issues;

(3) the desirability of the enactment of authority for the President to induct persons registered under such Act for training and service in the Armed Forces during any period with respect to which the President determines that such authority is required in the interest of the national defense;

(4) whether women should be subject to registration under such Act and to induction for training and service in the Armed Forces under such Act;

(5) the desirability and feasibility of providing authority for the President to induct persons into the Individual Ready Reserve;

(6) whether persons registered under such Act should also be immediately classified and examined or whether classification and examination of registrants should be subject to the discretion of the President;

(7) such changes in the organization and operation of the Selective Service System as the President determines are necessary to enable the Selective Service System to meet the personnel requirements of the Armed Forces during a mobilization in a more efficient and expeditious manner than is presently possible;

(8) the desirability, in the interest of preserving discipline and morale in the Armed Forces, of establishing a national youth service program permitting volunteer work, for either public or private public service agencies, as an alternative to military service;

(9) such other changes in existing law relating to registration, classification, selection, and induction as the President considers appropriate; and

(10) other possible procedures that could be established to enable the Armed Forces to meet their personnel requirements.

(b) The President shall transmit with the plan required by subsection (a) proposals for such legislation as may be necessary to implement the plan and to revise and modernize the Military Selective Service Act.

(c) The plan required by subsection (a), together with the proposed legislation required by subsection (b), shall be transmitted to the Congress not later than January 15, 1980, or the end of the three-month period beginning on the date of the enactment of this Act, whichever is later.

Legislative proposals, transmittal to Congress.

PRESERVATION OF SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM AS AN INDEPENDENT AGENCY

SEC. 812. Section 1 of the Military Selective Service Act (50 U.S.C. App. 451) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(f) The Congress further declares that the Selective Service System should remain administratively independent of any other agency, including the Department of Defense.”.

STUDY OF TITAN II MISSILE SYSTEMS

SEC. 813. that investigation, along with recommendations for any needed physical or procedural improvements to protect the public safety (including the safety of military personnel assigned to those systems) shall be reported to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives.

LIMITATION ON OVERSEAS TRAVEL AND TRANSPORTATION ALLOWANCES FOR DEPENDENTS

SEC. 814. Section 406 of title 37, United States Code, relating to travel and transportation allowances for dependents, is amended—

(1) by striking out "A" at the beginning of subsection (a) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof "Except as provided in subsection (i) of this section, a";

(2) by striking out "In" at the beginning of subsection (h) of such section and inserting in lieu thereof "Except as provided in subsection (i) of this section, in"; and

(3) by adding at the end of such section the following new subsection:

"(i)(1) After September 30, 1980, and except as provided in paragraph (3) of this subsection, the allowance and transportation authorized by subsection (a) and subsection (h) of this section for travel and transportation of dependents may not be provided with respect to travel and transportation of any dependent of a member of the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marine Corps from any place inside the United States to any place outside the United States, or from any place outside the United States to any place inside the United States, during any period in which the number of dependents accompanying members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps who are stationed outside the United States and who are authorized by the Secretary concerned to receive such allowance or transportation for dependents exceeds 325,000.

"(2)(A) The Secretary of Defense shall allocate among the three military departments the limitation established by paragraph (1) with respect to the total number of dependents who may be accompanying members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps stationed overseas who are entitled under subsection (a) or (h) to travel and transportation for dependents before the allowance for such travel and transportation is suspended under such paragraph.

"(B) The Secretary of each military department, in his discretion, shall administer the limitation on the number of dependents who may be provided travel and transportation under subsections (a) and (h) allocated to his military department under subparagraph (A) in such manner as the Secretary considers to be fair and in the best interest of the United States.

"(3) Paragraph (1) does not prohibit the provision of travel and transportation under subsection (a) or subsection (h) of this section for travel and transportation of dependents from a place outside the United States to a place inside the United States if the travel and transportation of such dependents to such place outside the United States was authorized under subsection (a) or subsection (h) of this section at the time of the travel and transportation of such dependents to such place outside the United States."
